

The Pro Bono Network

The Pro Bono Network

The Pro Bono Network

2026 Pro Bono Network Conference Posters

Comparison Of A Student-Run Free Clinic Patient Demographics To A Community Health Needs Assessment

McCormick AR, Wang JK, Graversen EE, Garcia WJ
California State University, Sacramento

Prevalence of Diabetes Encountered in a Mid-west Physical Therapy Pro Bono Clinic.

Brooks H, Henderson A, Jenness L, Munsen C, Irvine S, Hauer, P
Briar Cliff University, Sioux City

Financial Impact of University-Community Partnerships for Interpretive Services in a Pro Bono Physical Therapy Clinic.

Covington M, Guzman N, Kennedy K
Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond

Community Collaboration in Delivery of Occupational Therapy Pro Bono Telehealth Clinic for Parents with Disabilities.

Lyons-Brown A
University of St. Augustine for Health Sciences, St. Augustine

Animal Assisted Therapy for Neurodivergent Children: The Interprofessional Approach.

Vossos H
University of St. Augustine for Health Sciences, St. Augustine

From Print to Practice: An Interprofessional Approach to Improving Carryover.

Earnshaw S, Jeffreys K, Molina M, Oberlandera A
Sacred Heart University, Fairfield

Interpreter Services within a Student-Led Pro Bono Therapy Clinic: A Needs Assessment.

Kathleen A, Morrow C
Medical University of South Carolina

Changes in Healthcare Students Perceptions after an In-Person Interprofessional Education and Collaborative Case Experience.

Galbraith S, Wienk B, Webster A
Briar Cliff University, Sioux City

Empowering Patients Beyond the Clinic: Evaluating Resource Use in the NBPTC.

Barr M, McDowell G, Egan B, Rhein J
Temple University, Philadelphia

PhysZOU: Training Tomorrow's Clinicians While Serving Today's Community.

Haase M, Sangoi A, Elliot C, Meadows S, Martin D
University of Missouri

Improving the Accessibility and Reliability of Language Translation Services in a Student-Run Pro Bono Clinic.

Aguirre J, Barrett K, Egan B
Temple University